The Remote Neural technology that is currently being implemented around the world has the capacity to mimic all kinds of ailments as well as neurological and psychological "disorders." Vaccinations are the main culprit of the recent surge in Autism. Dementia has grown exponentially due to the underhanded, covert use of this technology. I think they figure that children and the elderly are easy targets during the experimental and initial phases of this worldwide rollout.

The legislative push toward micro-chipping those with dementia or autism is the beginning, and it is not in humanity's best interest. The motives are nefarious and all about Draconian, totalitarian control. The truth, though, is they don't need chips. Tracking and influence of people's brains is already happening and it's noninvasive. This is nothing more than a way to manipulate people into volunteering so that the government can cover their own ass on a legal level because what they're doing now is an unprecedented violation of every human right under the sun.

The only prediction that really matters for 2017: The global debt collapse begins, followed by the rise of fascist, totalitarian government

These criminal stalkers often drive in ways that give rise to accidents, which for many targets, cause injury and financial turmoil. This is dangerous and illegal and they do this stuff even with kids in the car. In this case, this woman, who makes some pretty compelling videos of the vehicular stalking, gets tapped by a car on the freeway. The car does not stop, which would be considered a hit and run. Amazing what these people get away with.

Amazing that our own government and law enforcement spearhead this Targeting Program. I personally have nearly been run off the road on a half dozen different occasions that could have resulted in very dangerous accidents. This is what happens when you fight back.

Blackmail, pedophilia, deception, murder, mayhem, corruption of all kinds. Welcome to the world stage.

Does anyone at the top of this hierarchical pyramid of control arrive in any natural sense? No. Can someone break free of the establishment, go rogue, and live to tell? Possible but doubtful. This world operates on blackmail of the most compromising kind in order to control and silence. There are almost no accidents on this world stage. The scripts they write are full of twists and turns that take us on an emotional roller-coaster ride. The truth is meant to be hard to determine.

Emotion and hope are two favorite tools of manipulation. Give us hope and attach it to us on a visceral level and most of us will buy into anything and anyone who represents that ideal and will fight with fierceness anyone who questions it.

There are big question marks with Trump as with any other politician in recent history. Obama ran on hope 8 years ago and we are on the brink of WW3 and economic collapse...again. Bush 8 years before that declared a false War on Terror and turned this country into a soft Police State where innocent civilians could be targeted like criminals and terrorists. Now Trump campaigned and won on the idea of making America great again and on going against the "establishment."

But look at what it's done. Polarized the citizenry and filled people with contempt toward one another based on beliefs represented by colors. A perfect outcome for the Divide and Conquer strategy. It could be that Trump, by design, will be "forced" to declare Martial Law because of manufactured Civil War, political polarization, or some international catastrophe that has its roots in another false flag, 9-11 type event. Hence, the "Trump" card.

The puppeteers make things happen in myriad and deceptive ways, that are often so cleverly done that it takes too much energy for most to dig deep enough and understand how and what they do. The truth is, if world players are instructed to fulfill their role in a particular way, then they almost always do for fear of debilitating retribution or worse loss of life. And because they reap serious rewards no matter how their action or inaction negatively affects everyday citizens.

I want to "believe" just like everyone else. But if that belief and hope ignores the true nature of what's really going on, we can never overcome the lies, deceptions, and hollow promises we have been fed for too long.

Looks to me like the stage is being set for another 9-11 type false flag event.

Pedosexuality...wow.

This is part of the pedophilia normalization agenda. Your children are at risk if this evil gains any kind of mainstream traction.

Sickos going all the way to the top and throughout many governments that are largely driven by Satanic ideals are looking to legalize their perversions at the expense of a child's well-being.

No child at age six should be used as an example for this deranged ideology that looks to erase the natural biology of a human being. To try and make people feel like they are old-fashioned or bigoted for defending the genetic and mental integrity of a child is such pathetic, transparent, and baseless propaganda that will fall on its face.

This movement will confuse and damage the psychological well-being of children everywhere. It already has. This has nothing to do with acceptance and tolerance.

Microwaves used to alter behavior and adversely affect health have been around for decades. Now it's a staple used around the clock and around the world on people who are targeted.

Incredible how successful the suppression of this truth has been.

When a crime is ahead of the curve of legislation and mainstream consciousness, it wreaks havoc on society and with impunity.

Such is the case with this Targeting Program.

News and politics are like boxing. You have a red corner and a blue corner, the audience roots for one side or the other, and both fighters are always going for a knockout punch. I think the politicians and media mouthpieces should all start wearing Everlast trunks and gloves. Have Don King manage them.

The level of control and intrusion discussed in this video, the technology that destroys every facet of one's privacy and controls your life in every way is what a Target experiences firsthand.

This is here now and it's being rolled out.

A target experiences many types of vehicular harassment and terrorism when on the road. Here is a good example of how a perp drove by the guy's house when his kids came home, then parked, waited, and pulled in front when he approached. It's rare to catch this kind of premeditated activity on camera but he set a camera set up in his home that caught everything.

Legalizing what's already been going on for God knows how long. I wonder when they're going to create an Executive Order for reading your mind and seeing through your eyes. Email surveillance an antiquated red herring.

REMOTE NEURAL MONITORING (Satellite Harassment/Terrorism) Reality and Awareness!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-QlzTAS0h8s>

The bread and butter of the Targeting Program. A criminal's dream come true.

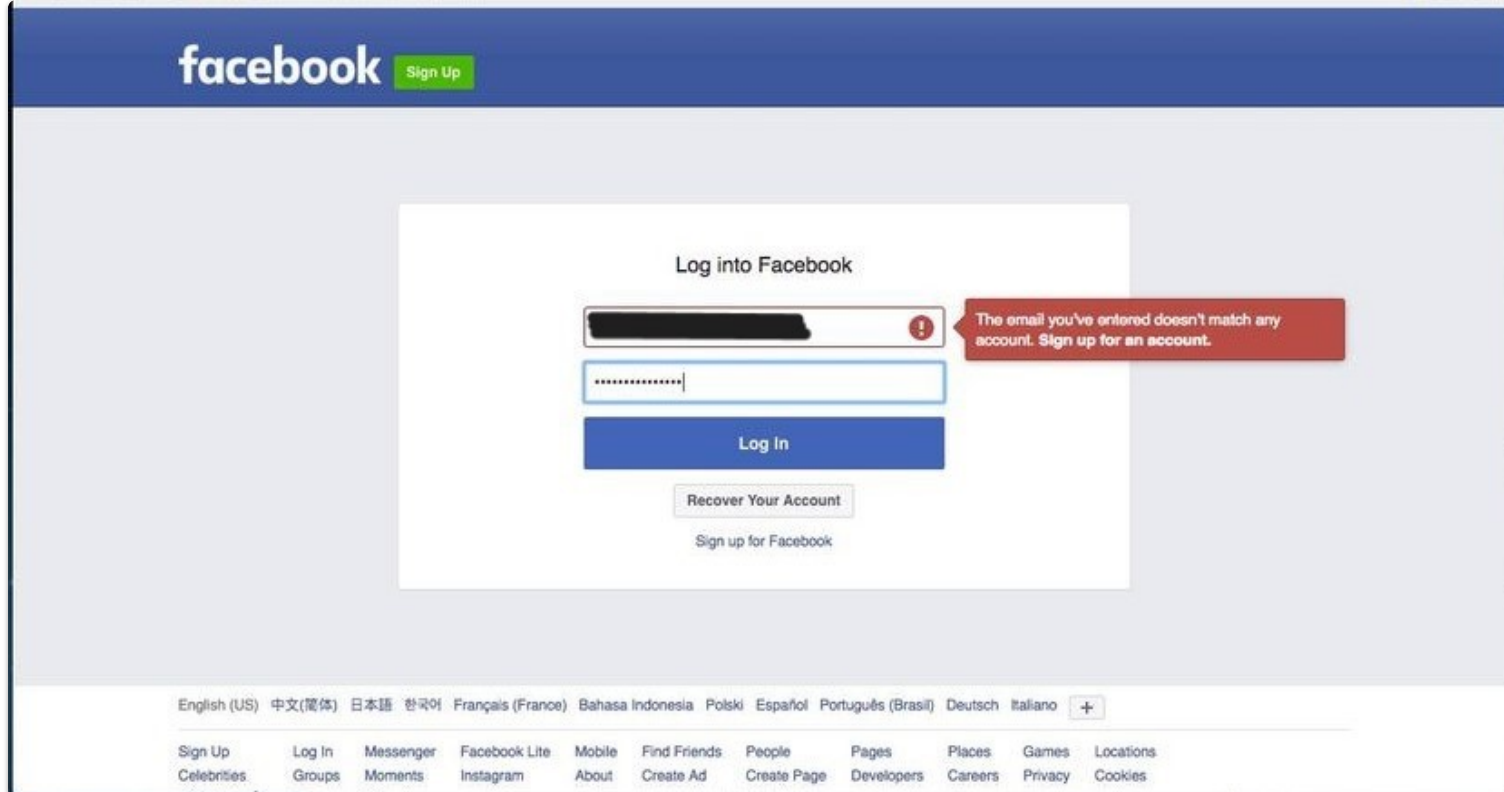

I have gotten this on a number of occasions and it is often in conjunction with me documenting the terroristic, government-driven harassment and cyber-harassment that I deal with on a daily basis. This Targeting Program uses all kinds of PsyOp techniques in order to threaten a target with the possibility of life getting harder.

It's conditional in that regard and if and when a target speaks out, consequences of all types follow. When I first got hit on a technical level and began to investigate, I got locked out of many accounts, lost hundreds of gigs of data (which multiple companies did nothing to help me retrieve despite clear indications of hacking.), and experienced hundreds of technical issues on various devices.

Facebook is one of the main social media platforms that gets targeted, and sometimes perpetrator government informants who take over the account do messed up things while posing as the target to further their despicable slander and discrediting campaign. They also use it as a means of learning your contacts and studying your relationships.

I can't determine exactly what happened in my case because I was never able to see my account again but I will say this: Facebook was never helpful at all in helping try to recover this account. It was an impossible situation that inspired me to give up after months' worth of attempts at retrieval.

So when I see messages like the one below saying that they do not have an account with that email address when that email is clearly my email for this account, it raises serious questions. This a form of soft harassment, and I deal with these types of issues every day.

Every time I attempt to document the unbelievable level of targeting, harassment and terrorism that I have experienced, I run into problems on my computer. This comes in the form of "technical issues" that impede my progress, which can range from minor software anomalies to the platters of my hard drive suddenly crashing. These problems have been persistent and with varying degrees of intensity for two years now.

Coming from a strong IT background, I have spent tens of thousands of dollars trying to combat and overcome this and to no avail. I have also lost near the equivalent in destroyed equipment through break-ins or through the use of remote pulsing that fries my electronics, mainly equipment used to document what these criminals do.

Another telltale sign is the throttling of my internet connection to where I can barely load pages despite having a solid, fast connection. If you experience this and have spoken out openly and critically of the government, then you may be targeted and unaware.

This is what our intelligence agencies, our military, and law enforcement are doing to innocent civilians. This is what the future holds for everyone if we don't stop it.

Seems my posts are being censored as well. Can't be certain on this but considering the kinds of issues I've experienced on Facebook, wouldn't surprise me.

Considering I have been posting on the pedophilia epidemic, I am currently in Louisiana, and I have been on the government's radar, this is an interesting piece of news. I called Pizzagate a hijacked, government-driven PsyOp not long ago.

Looks like a I was right. Create fakery in order to hide reality and discredit or worse imprison as many people as you can along the way.

Anonymous American Donor Funds 'Some Girls Have Penises, Some Boys Vaginas' Poster Campaign

The androgynous Baphomet agenda is in full swing and they're targeting children around the world.

"Transgender" children think they're transgender because their Satanic Illuminati parents who believe in generational gender reversal raise them that way from birth. This is especially a common practice among royal bloodlines and has been for centuries. This movement is not about treating everyone equally. I am all about treating people equally and it's not my place to judge another's personal choices.

But this is different. This is about aggressively imposing an ideal of androgyny on the masses including our youth, an ideal that Satanists believe represents a transcendent fusion of male and female.

The agenda involves the steady erosion of any natural creation of family by replacing natural procreation with this. That way the state takes over the breeding process and further removes the maternal bond between mothers and their children.

Over time, if they have their way, this will become the predominant form of breeding and guarantee total dehumanization and population control. Human nature and natural law are the enemy of transhumanism and Luciferian inversion. I believe this has been going on already for quite some time.
